Fairmount College Notes.

The fall term came to an end Thursday afternoon. Term examinations were held on Wednesday and Thursday. Fairmount students have gone to their respective homes to spend Christmas vacation. All are anticipating a jolly season and a visit from Santa Claus.

The winter term will begin January 2, 1902. In addition to the regular courses begun last term, several new classes will be organized at this time.

Several of the old students were visitors at the college on Thursday. Among them were Miss Nina Miller of Anthony, and Edgar Trapp of Sedgewick.

On invitation of the Men's Sunday club Professor W. H. Ledy delivered an address at the Congregational church at Newton last Sunday evening. "The Puritan and His Influence in American History" was the subject of his address.

The young men of English last entertained the young ladies who reside on the hill last Monday evening. An old-time candy pull was one of the features of the evening.

Sidney Harding, '02, C. C. Ledy, '02, Emmett Hill, '02, and Claude Nelson are helping Goldsmith through his holiday business.

Miss Flora C. Cough will spend a portion of her vacation visiting friends near Douglas.

Professors Roullet, Ledy and Buck expect to accompany the Wichita delegation of teachers to Topeka and attend the meetings of the State Teachers association. These meetings will be held next week.

Rev. H. E. Thayer will preach at the Fairmount church this afternoon at three o'clock. The service occurs an hour earlier than usual, as it is to be followed by a business session of the church.

Through purchase, the library has received a fine addition of valuable books. The addition numbers about 25 volumes, the books relating chiefly to French history during the revolutionary period.

Professor G. I. Gaysett will visit Kansas City during the coming week.

Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Snodgrass entertained the Library club. German literature was the chief topic on the program. Lunch was served.

Slicker Conservatory Notes.

The Slicker choir recital given at the Plymouth Congregational church Tuesday night, was a pronounced success. Mr. Staples played with a skill and mastery which would do credit to one of long years of experience. His delivery of touch, sympathy of expression and command of technique displayed at this recital fully sustained all that has been said by both the press and the people. Miss Clark sang her numbers with exceeding purity of tone, and great flexibility and a rare clearness of enunciation. Excellent of manual and vocal technique, intelligent phrasing and good finish characterized Miss Finley's piano playing. Taken altogether, it was one of the most pleasing musical entertainments of the season.

The Slicker Conservatory mandolin and guitar quartet, assisted by Miss Clark, will give a concert in the Mulvane opera house Friday night, December 27.

A good attendance of pupils and their friends listened to the students' recital at the conservatory Friday afternoon, when the following program was given:

Piano Solo—Parade of the Guards... Behr

Piano Solo—Study... Wohlfahrt

Vocal Solo—Ashamed of Jesus... Danko

Piano Solo—American Girl... Kunkel

Vocal Solo—Ave Maria... Luzzi

Piano Solo—Farewell to the Piano... Beethoven

Vocal Solo—My Dream... Tosti

New pupils were registered in every department of the school this week, and all classes are doing highly satisfactory work.

3500 CARMEL ACADEMY.

The academy closed for the holiday vacation the 21st and will reopen January 2, 1902.

On the evening of the 18th a very interesting literary and musical entertainment was given, the occasion being honored by the presence of the Right Reverend Bishop Hennessy. Following was the program:

Greeting Song... Wiegand

Piano Solo—Tarentelle... F. Thome

An Order for a Picture... Miss Steinman

Musical Overture... Miss Steinman

Miss Steinman, Oliver, L. Soldani, Montray, Harrie, Reddick, Lohrey, Cash, A. Soldani, Martin, Van Doren, De Noya, Goodlyar, Shrover, Limbocker.

Piano Solo—La Gazelle... R. Hoffman

Musical Invitation—Wood Class... Vezde

Musical Screen, Chorus, De Vaughn, Cassidy, Steinman, Cullison, Wilbur, Cash, Shive, Limbocker, Garst, Dice, Accompanist, Miss De Noya.

Piano Solo—"Dark, Dark, the Lark" (Schubert)—Lutz

Miss Stapleton

Vocal Trio—Ave Maria... Owen

Misses Steyer, Wilbur, Accompanist—Miss De Noya.

Piano Solo—Tarentelle... L. Vely

La Sonata... J. J. Hennessy

Violin, Miss Steinman; Piano, Miss Thrale

Piano Solo... Rondo Capriccioso (Mendelssohn)

Miss De Noya

Recitation—The Old City Church, Seniors

Misses Walker, Cassidy, Jarets, De Vaughn, Shive, Deutchman, Senora, Stapleton, Haggitt, Dice, Burdett, Schmidt, Wilbur, Cullison, Thrale, Monice, Thrale.

Piano Solo—Luz... G. Biet

La Carina... C. E. Pomeroy

Piano Solo—Op. 15... Beethoven

"Come Away" Miss De Vaughn

Accompanist, Miss De Vaughn

From the first number to the last it was a program of marked excellence.

Kelso School of Music Notes.

The regular meeting of the Kelso club was held on Friday evening, December 21. The program was carried out as announced. Among other business, the club decided to give a large public concert for Miss S. Ellen Barnes in January. This concert will be given at the opera house and Miss Barnes will be assisted by Kansas City talent. The concert will be given under the auspices of the Kelso club, together with the assistance of a number of prominent society ladies, who will act as patronesses. The date of the concert has not yet been decided upon, probably the 15th or the 18th of the month. The names of the patronesses and program matter will be announced here later.

The program given in the Kelso studio yesterday afternoon by Master Jay Rockwell was a pleasing one. The performance of a "Milk and Honey" piece in a self-composed, easy manner and his program would have been a credit to a much older student. He is a pupil of Miss Olive Pitt.

Miss Harvey will spend a month in Kansas City, and will be the new teacher.

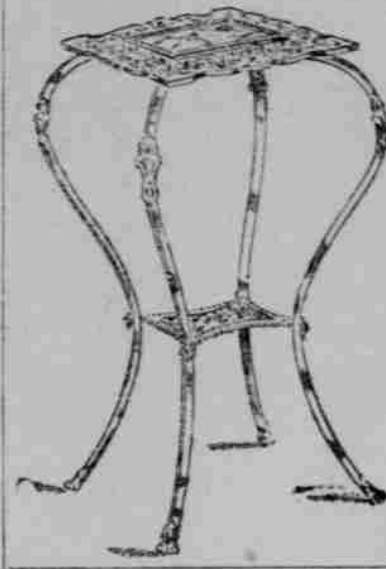

The regular practice recital was held on Friday evening, December 21, at 8 o'clock. The program was given at the studio last Saturday afternoon, December 21, at four o'clock. Each

Wichita Commercial College Notes.
Dr. Rose of Wellington called at the college during the week, to visit his son, who is pursuing the commercial course. His oldest son, who is attending a medical college in St. Louis, called Saturday, on his way home for the holiday vacation. Miss Geneva Clark of the shorthand department accepted a position as stenographer for Mr. Kimball of this city during the vacation of Miss Nora Finnegan, a former graduate.
Miss Case of the shorthand department was called to take a position as stenographer and bookkeeper with the Hall Commission company of this city during the week.
Mr. Charles M. Jewett received his diploma from the commercial department Friday.
Mr. Bivette called to see his daughter, who is taking shorthand and assisting in the bookkeeping department, Thursday.
Prof. W. L. Pomeroy, a former teacher, made a pleasant visit Friday. He was well pleased with the rapid growth of the college since he was connected with it, three years ago.
Miss Michael Yearhik of the shorthand department has accepted a position with Hewitt & Weaver of this city.
About half of the students have gone home to spend Christmas, while the other half voted to remain in school during the holiday week.
Mr. F. H. Nordley, recently from Kansas City, arrived Monday, for the commercial course.
Friends' University Notes.
The annual Christmas party given by the students and faculty at Friends' University, Friday, and students are secure on the West Side now. Most of the students scattered to their various homes and the state, where they will remain until January 2nd.
The professors and teachers who spent Christmas at various places. Prof. and Mrs. William W. L. Lohrey, who came to the college, where the Academy of Friends holds its meetings; Prof. Harold and Mrs. Truitt will attend the State Teachers' association meeting at Topeka, Prof. Jones will go to Oklahoma. Other members of the faculty will remain in the city.
Miss Bradley was the guest of Prof. and Mrs. Williams at South Hill while in the city.
The students were given an unusual pleasure at chapel Friday morning. Miss Helen Buckley of Chicago, who gave the
